CERTIFICATIONS

HTML COURSE

BY PRASHANT SIR (KG CODING)

Mastering an HTML course empowered me with essential skills for structuring web content, forming the backbone of my web development proficiency. This knowledge serves as a cornerstone, enabling me to seamlessly integrate dynamic elements and advance into comprehensive web development projects.

CSS COURSE

BY PRASHANT SIR(KG CODING)

Completing an ACSS (Advanced Cascading Style Sheets) course refined my styling capabilities, enabling precise control over web page layouts and aesthetics. This expertise significantly elevated the quality of my web development projects by ensuring a polished and responsive user interface.
